

Fast Facts
 about
Full Time Islamic Schools
 in
the United States

by
Karen Keyworth, Director of Education for the Islamic Schools League of America

Full Time Islamic Schools in the US – data collected 2006
Total Number*	235
♦ Sr. Clara Muhammad Schools	23 (possibly up to 27)
♦ Immigrant Community-Based Schools	212
Total Students	32,000
Average Number of Students per/School	121
Most Common Size of Schools	Under 100 students 55% Under 150 students 85%
Age of Schools	6 years of younger 55% 10 years or younger 85%
Growth	66% of Islamic schools are currently in bricks & mortar expansion projects or have written plans to do so
Professionalism	Widespread movement toward professionalism – in 60% of schools, 80% of teachers are certified
Governance	45% completely independent 29% mosque connected but govern autonomously 21% mosque governed
Hire Teachers of Other Faiths	49% Yes (most Yes indicate 10%-30% of faculty is Other Faith) 23% Not yet, but are considering doing so in the future 28% No, hire only Muslim teachers

* All numbers will be approximate as there is a lag time between changes in schools and the League learning about those changes.

 An estimated number of students – between 26,000 and 35,500 students – in Islamic schools can be extrapolated from the actual number of students reported in the data. After taking into consideration other factors, the most probable number of children in Islamic schools is approximately 32,000 students.

The Typical Full Time Islamic School is:

- ♦ Average sized for parochial school – 100 students or less (most common size)
- ♦ Young – 6 years or younger
- ♦ Growing
- ♦ Professionally oriented
- ♦ Independent governance

Please note: this research was conducted in 2006 and published in 2008. For a free download, please visit our Research Archives at <http://www.theisla.org/staticpages/index.php/PublicationsArticlesPapers> Thank you!